

Sergio MUJICA

Secretary-General, International Organization for Standardization (ISO)

Sergio Mujica joined ISO as Secretary-General in July 2017, having spent 7 years at the World Custom's Organization (WCO) as Deputy Secretary-General. The WCO aims to enhance the effectiveness and efficiency of Custom's administrations worldwide, and within this role Mr Mujica was responsible for the design and implementation of the WCO's strategic plan. This included simplification, harmonization and standardization of custom's procedures in addition to capacity building initiatives aimed at the WCO members. This gave him significant experience in an international setting, building consensus within a large membership-based organization.

Prior to working at the World Customs Organization, Mr Mujica spent 15 years working for the Government of Chile with the Ministry of Agriculture, the Ministry of Economic Affairs and as the Director General of Chile Customs. A Chilean national, he has a law degree from the Pontificia Universidad Catolica de Chile and a Master's degree in International Law from the American University in Washington DC.
